NUMB. 3073

SATURDAY, JANUARY 7, 1744

Yesterday arrived a Mail from France.

Extract from the Paris Almanac. Paris, January 10.

THE King arrived this Day from Choisy at Versailles, from whence he will go on Tuesday next to Marly, with all the Court; and we are assured, will continue there for the Space of six Weeks. It would be happy for all Europe, if the Labour of his most Christian Majesty's Ministers were as harmless as the Travels of their Master.

The Prince of Campo Florido, Ambassador from Spain to this Court, received, within these few Days, a Courier from Madrid; but we hear not a Word of the Contents of his Dispatches. A sure Sign they contained no good News, otherwise French Ministry would not have concealed it.

They write from Strasbourg, that M. Coigny hath been again attacked by his old Distemper, a Stoppage of Urine.

Several Officers belonging to the Army intended for Italy, have received his Majesty's Orders to be ready to set out on the first Notice.

They write from Poland, that they were apprehensive from the Disputes that have lately broke out between Count Poniatowski and Count Tarlo, in which many of the Nobility are interested on both Sides, that they should find a Way to decide their Differences on Horseback, in the open Field, according to the old Method of their Country.

According to the last Letters received from Brest and Toulon, we hear, that the Squadrons of France and Spain have Orders to hold themselves ready to sail by the 15th of this Month; and we are assured, that the combined Squadrons will form a Fleet of 70 Sail, exclusive of Frigates and Transports; viz. 27 Spanish Ships of the Line, and 43 French. All the Officers likewise have Orders to be at their respective Posts by the same Day, that they may be ready to embark at an Hour's Warning.

This Writer exceeds, in the Art of Computation, all his Brethren; for the highest List mentioned in private Letters reckons 14 French Men of War at Brest, 21 at Toulon, and 19 Spanish Men of War, which makes in all but 54; and some Accounts do not make them more.

His Royal Highness the Duchess of Orleans has lately made a Present to the Canons of St. Genevieve, of a Purple Cloth, and two Pieces of Tapestry of very considerable Value; this former being esteemed worth 100,000 Livres.

There arrived here lately 23 Gentlemen from Daix in Gascogne, and amongst them six Brothers, who were all enter'd into the King's Service; they were taken into the Company of Life Guards commanded by the Duke de Villeroy, and are to pass in Review before the Dauphin, on the 23d of the Afternoon.

This is, in the strictest Sense of the Word, a Gascogne.

They write from Parma, of the 17th of last Month, that General Wettes was gone from Piacentia to Turin, on order, as it is given out, to demand of the King of Sardinia a Body of 6000 Men, of his Troops, to reinforce the Austrian Army at Rimini; not only because it is no longer in a Condition to act offensively against the Spaniards, but will be likewise much embarrassed in retiring back into the Bolonnois; which they cannot do, without exposing themselves to the Mercy of the vigilant Count de Gages, who only waits for that Opportunity to pursue them.

This is a much more entertaining Gascogne than the former; but that it is really no more than a Gascogne, will appear to any reasonable Man from hence, That nothing could be wilder, than the French embarking so a Body of Troops, with such apparent Hazard, for if the Spaniards were able to carry all Things before them, in that Part of the World, without such Assistance.

Actions 2040.

I R E L A N D.

Extract from the Votes of the House of Commons.

December 20. Order'd, That William Harward, Esq; Member of this House, have Leave to attend at the Palace of the Lord Viscount Netterville, as one of the Lord's Council.

December 21. Mr. Chaigneau, according to Order, reported from the Committee of the whole House, to whom Heads of a Bill, for the Amendment of the Law in relation to Inland Bills of Exchange, Promissory Notes, Forgery, and the Salvage of Ships and Goods stranded, were committed, That they had gone thro' the same Paragraph by Paragraph, and agreed thereto with some Amendments, which he read in his Place, and afterwards deliver'd in at the Table.

And a Motion being made, that the said Heads of a Bill be now again read, the same were read accordingly.

Then the Amendments made by the Committee to the said Heads of a Bill, were again read, and agreed to by the House.

Order'd, That Mr. Chaigneau do attend his Grace the Lord-Lieutenant with the said Heads of a Bill, and desire the same may be transmitted into Great Britain in due Form.

H O M E P O R T S.

Dublin, December 27. Sailed the St. Anthony, Alvas, the Lady Dorothy, Dellew, and the Venus, Wegner, all for Lisbon; the Hope, Lambe, for Barbados; the Santa Catharina, Da Silva, for Leghorn; and the St. Francis, Cadeau, for Dunkirk.

Falmouth, January 2. Wind E. Sailed the Westmorland, Shanks, and the Imperial Anne, Harman, both from London for the Streights.

Pool, January 4. Wind N. E. Came in the Two Sisters, Dore, from Yarmouth.

Cowes, January 4. Wind N. E. Yesterday came in the Anna-Catherina, Jacobson, from Arundale in Norway, bound here. Sailed the Loverence Galley, Douwes, from Hamburg for Carthage; and this Morning sailed the Fanny, Roberts, from this Place for Oporto.

Dart, January 5. Wind N. W. Arrived a Dutch Ship from Holland for East-India; cannot get her Name this Post; and remains with the Furnace Man of War, Drake Sloop, and Ursula Tender. Came down and failed the Happy Couple, Jones, for Dublin.

Arrived

At Dublin, the Dublin Merchant, Thomas, and the Eagle, Young, both from London.

At Cork, the Orley, Ellwood, from Amsterdam for Madeira and St. Kitts.

L O N D O N.

The Count de Saxe will have the Command of the French Army on the Rhine, in case M. Coigny should find himself obliged to return to Paris, on account of his illness.

The French King has given Orders, for remitting 300,000 Livres to Vienna, for the Use of the French Prisoners in Hungary; and has also given Directions to grant them, for the future, a monthly Subsistence, in order to prevent their being sent into Transylvania.

Private Letters from Paris say, that the last Courier from Madrid brought Advice, that the Marquis de Gandia, who was sent by his Catholic Majesty with a secret Commission to the Court of Lisbon, had failed in his Negotiation.

Proposals have been made to the Queen of Hungary, for settling a new Method for collecting the Revenue in Bohemia; by which it may be augmented, at least, 4,000,000 of Crowns per Annum.

Baron Solenthal, his Danish Majesty's Minister at this Court, is said to have received full Powers for concluding a new and important Negotiation, which is at present upon the Carpet.

Extract of a Letter from Frederica in Georgia, dated September 12, 1743.

On the 28th of July, Capt. Griffith, in the Fame Privateer, brought a Spanish Sloop, taken by him on the Coast of Florida, into Amelia Sound in this Province. The Spanish Master of the Sloop, and the Sailors, had quitted her, and got ashore in their Boat; leaving a Lieutenant, two young Gentlemen, two Frenchmen, and 25 Spanish Soldiers on board. They were bound for the Havannah, and sailed in Company with several other Vessels from Augustine, to bring Provision to that Garrison. The Spanish Soldiers are brought to this Town Prison; the two Frenchmen voluntarily enter'd on board the Privateer.

Yesterday being Twelfth Day, his Majesty, their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, &c. went in State to the Chapel Royal; and during the Offertory, his Majesty advanced to the Altar, and, according to the ancient Custom of the Kings of England, offer'd three Purfes fill'd with Gold, Frankincense, and Myrrh, in Commemoration of the Presents made by the Eastern Magi at the Manifestation.

At Noon there was a splendid Court, when the Knights Companions of the several Orders wore their respective Collars.

In the Evening his Majesty play'd at Hazard with several of the Nobility, for the Benefit of the Groom Porter.

Last Night several Members of the House of Commons arriv'd in Town from their Country Seats, in order to attend the Service of the House, which meets on Monday next.

The following Gentlemen are put into the Commission of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Westminster; viz. Charles Croft, Esq; a great Brewer at Millbank.

Daniel Gach, Esq; Druggist to his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Baronet, Esq; Licenon to his Majesty. And Thomas Lediard, Esq; one of the Commissioners of the last State Lottery, and Agent to the Commissioners for building the new Bridge at Westminster.

JOHN GARNER,
At Mrs. Spencer's, the old Far, in Princes-Street, near Cavendish-Square,

Administers infallible Remedies for the following Disorders, which have been experienced to be so for upwards of 60 Years, in Foreign Parts, viz.

1. Effectually to cure the most inveterate Canker in the Mouth, after it hath been adjudg'd incurable.
2. Also to cure effectually the Scurvy in the Mouth.
3. To prevent the Teeth from rotting, and the Gums from waiting; and to make the latter grow, and the former white.
4. To consume Corns intirely without any Danger or Pain, so as never to grow again.
5. To raise Toe Nails which grow into the Flesh, and cause them to grow as they should, without cutting, Danger or Pain.

The Truth of the above is well known to several Persons of Distinction, and which he is ready to make appear to those who doubt.

CONSUMPTIONS of all Sorts, ASTHMA's, and all Disorders of the Breast and Lungs,

Directly and infallibly cured by the Great
CHEMICAL ELIXIR,

WHICH has restored so many Thousand labouring under the deepest Consumptions and most deplorable Asthma's to perfect Health and Strength in few Days Time, after all other the most celebrated Methods and Medicines had been try'd in vain.

It at once strikes at, and absolutely eradicates the first Principle or Cause of Consumptions, whether of the Lungs or any other Kind, as also of Asthma's, or Shortness of Breath, reduces the vicious Ferment of the Blood and Juices, corrects the acrid Salts which erode the Lungs, frees them from obstructing Viscosities, and does more real Good in one Day than any other Medicine whatever can in ten.

It assuredly retrieves the Patient, tho' reduc'd to a mere Skeleton; and immediately cures the most tedious waiting and almost suffocating Coughs, Hoarseness, Wheezing, Shortness of Breath, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain, or Weight in the Breast, Spitting of Blood, Soreness of the Stomach, Throat or Windpipe: Also Catarrhs, or Defluxions of Sharp Rheum, and all Ptilical and Asthmatic Effects, Heetick Fevers, morning Night Sweats, and Diarrhoea's, or Loosenesses, in a pleasant and most agreeable Manner.

It is balsamick, healing and strengthening beyond Comparison, restores in all inward Weakness, Weakness, and Disorders of Constitution whatever, perfectly cures Ulcers in the Lungs or in any other internal Part, causes free and easy Respiration of long Breathing, and speedily and infallibly cures ASTHMA's, and all Sorts of CONSUMPTIONS, be they ever so bad, without the least Disorder, Trouble or Contumeliousness, and is indeed the only true Remedy that can be depended upon for the entire Cure of those Maladies.

Nor can the whole Materia Medica afford a quicker or more certain Cure for common Coughs and Colds; but the Character this most noble Chemical ELIXIR has so gain'd, for the direct and infallible Cure of Consumptions and ASTHMA's, &c. has occasioned many Attempts to counterfeit it; be careful therefore to have the Right, which may be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Royal Crown against St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand, 2 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and at no other Place in England.
